PRESENT: Ros Korkatzis [QHTA], Pam Dodds [RTAQ], Joan Jenkins [SLAQ], Genny Blades [OEAQ] Richard Smith [QSITE], Toni Michael [ECTA], Patricia Simmons [BEAQ]

APOLOGIES: Nicola Johnson [BEAQ]

BUSINESS ARISING FROM THE PREVIOUS MINUTES:

- . Problem of sending the minutes by snail mail; some members can't access the web page to download them
- . JCQTA brochure - waiting for the designer to contact us [Check out the QSITE brochure] The meeting decided that the brochure should be semi-gloss, A4 with tri-fold
- . BTR - issues mentioned in the August minutes are still under review

CORRESPONDENCE: IN

- . Schooling 2001 Expo - Conference Brochures
- . QSCC - Invitation for SOSE outsourcing of sourcebooks
- . Victoria University - questionnaire on site-based teacher education elicited further contact -> Richard to go to another meeting about this topic
- . ACER Conference notice
- . Vetnet Newsletter and insert
- . Australian Education Directory subscription form
- . Australian Democrats
- . JCSAV Newsletter
- . CEASA's Column
- . ACET 2000 Conference notice
- . COACTEA directory and Newsletter

TREASURER'S REPORT:

- . Transition from Paul to Joan has proceeded smoothly
- . $14962.81 balance
- . all outstanding membership fees have been settled
- . Reminder that annual fee has risen to $70.00p.a.

GENERAL BUSINESS:

- . Middle Schooling - Patricia attended the Conference ; will check to see if there is a Website dealing with the issues of Middle Schooling and the minutes of that Conference
- . Check the EdNA archive for interesting links and updates;
- . When the brochure is finalised, e-mail to QTU so that the Journal can write it up as an article. Richard to send the info to the QTU
- . VideoPro [Yasmin Mills] - offering sponsorship to conferences - Associations can contact her on yasleigh@ozemail.com.au
- . Pam suggested that JCQTA be the umbrella for a number of member associations ... who want to have generic educational topics for one day, and specific association topics on the second day of a conference.

- . second session of EdNA workshops with David Potter - Richard to contact him; possibly 5th December [Check e-mail for an update.]
Sessions might include - review of what has been done by various associations, recap of what has already been done at the June inservice; other technologies which could be used. What is needed to get started on creating a web page. What the executives might be able to do for members.
E-mail suggestions to David.
- . David ran a SLAQ workshop which was informative and worthwhile.
