JCQTA's Vision

JCQTA aims to.....

- ✓ provide a forum and common meeting ground for teacher associations
- ✓ promote greater cooperation and understanding between teacher associations;
- ✓ allow for an expression of a collective voice on educational matters in the interests of teacher associations;
- ✓ act as the key body representing subject associations as a group in communications with education authorities;
- ✓ establish partnerships with other groups on matters of mutual interest to members;
- ✓ sponsor and support activities that may assist teachers in the practice of their profession
- ✓ promote and encourage research and investigation as it relates to teaching;
- ✓ to promote links between industry and the teachers' associations;

JCQTA

The Joint Council of Queensland Teachers Associations Inc. represents teacher professional associations in state forums.

Each year more associations are joining our ranks, making JCQTA truly representative of the voluntary work undertaken by Queensland teachers from all sectors.

The Joint Council continues to be an important distribution point for information impacting on its members both from a state and national perspective.

Intrinsic benefits

Be a member of a wider network of Professional Associations and benefit from sharing information, project ideas and developing partnerships.

Keep up to date with latest local, state and national issues, funding, workshops, conferences and projects.

Enhance the professional learning opportunities and networks of your association's members.
